Accomplish the mission through teamwork

13th Sustainment Command (Expeditionary) Public Affairs

CAMP SATHER, Iraq – Spc. Christopher Murray from Port Byron, N.Y. and Spc. Demetrick Woods from Baltimore Md. both with the 21st Cargo Transfer Company, 620th Combat Sustainment Support Battalion, 96th Sustainment Brigade, show that working together is the best way to accomplish a mission. By practicing teamwork, these mechanics were able to repair vehicles in less than half of the time it would have taken one Soldier working alone.

Murray and Woods worked together to ensure that the vehicles were up to standard for the next unit coming in to replace the 21st CTC. Their teamwork and dedication to duty are setting the incoming unit up for success. By combining their efforts, these Soldiers are an example of what teamwork should be and what it can accomplish.
